A Poem on Covid-19: Our Homes

I don't think it's self-isolation.
I think it's self-discovery.
Discovering that you have all you need:
Family to pray for.
Friends to miss.
Faith to hold on to.

Maybe we've had happiness all along.
So let's spend some time alone.
The beauty of the world right now is within all of our homes.

IL Network
Statement of Solidarity

As a network we feel responsible to advocate for people of color, a community who historically and continuously fights discrimination. We take this vow of support and solidarity against social injustice, systemic racism and police brutality.

“I wish I could say that racism and prejudice were only distant memories. We must dissent from the indifference. We must dissent from the apathy. We must dissent from the fear, the hatred and the mistrust…We must dissent because America can do better, because America has no choice but to do better.” Thurgood Marshall (U.S. Supreme Court Justice, 1967–1991)

CILDRC Updates:

Our team has returned to the office and we continue to practice CDC guidelines and physical distancing by providing services by appointment only.

We ask that when an appointment is made that if you have any COVID-19 symptoms or are not feeling well that you stay home and contact us via phone. For all who come to the office for your appointment you will have an infrared temperature taken, you will need to where masks and gloves and you will be asked some screening questions in order to enter our building.

The CIL Team continues to also reach out by telephone to assess and fulfill consumer unmet needs. We have been able to assist many individuals with connection to food, equipment and/or a listening ear.

While attending to our COVID-19 check ins with the community, we had a conversation with a consumer who needed new assistive technology. She has experienced increased visual difficulties from Stargardt’s Disease. She was able to come to the Center for an appointment in our parking lot. She had a demonstration of two products from our FAAST program. She chose to borrow a medium sized screen to enlarge images to help improve her access to printed materials. The Center is here for a variety of supports to help you meet your goals for independence.

New challenges of COVID-19 occur everyday. If you are experiencing new urgent or ongoing matters that you want to attend to, please contact us ASAP. You can reply to this email or call us at 850-595-5566. We will do what we can to help support you in the direction(s) you wish to navigate for solution(s).

(If we haven’t reached you yet and you don’t feel you need to connect with CILDRC directly, please reply to this email and type "I AM OKAY" in the body.)
LGBTQ+ and the Disability Communities

According to the Movement Advancement Project "LGBT people are more likely to have a disability than the general population. For example, in a survey of more than 26,000 transgender people, 39% reported having a disability. And one in three lesbians and one in three bisexual women report having a disability in a population-based survey in Washington." Continue Reading

As more Pride events continue to unfold this month, please keep accessibility in mind so everyone can enjoy celebrating their identity.
